Members of the Odd Fellows and Elks, of which orders the missing man was a mem ber, are assisting in the search. The case has attracted considerable attention in Maryland and Virginia because of the prom inence of the Newhouse family. Several friends of the young man went to Baltimore with Col. Newhouse to assist him in the search. A systematic investigation is being made in Baltimore by the police, newspaper reporters and friends of young Newhouse. It is believed to be certain that he did not commit suicide, and the theory that he went off with an actress after the performance Christmas eve has also been abandoned. It is feared by some of his friends that he was given "knockout" drops with deadly effect by persons who

SEASON OF OFFICIAL HOSPITALITIES IS NOW ON. President's First State Dinner Takes

White House reception yesterday appears to have arisen from the fact that Lady Pauncefote, the wife of the British ambassador, with the embassy staff, held the place of honor at the head of the diplomatic line as the reception began. The rule in such cases is quite clear and well established in precedents, namely, that the ambassador present longest in continuous service at the capital shall head the line. It was through an act of gallantry and graclousness on the part of the German ambassador himself that this rule was not applied yesterday. Lady Pauncefote informed the German ambassador of the fact of her husband's illness, and of her recognition of the further fact that he. Herr von Holleben, was for the day dean of the diplomatic body. But the ambassador declined day by visiting the National Theater last night to witness Francis Wilson in "The Toreador." It was strictly a family party, the President being accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt and the children.

Miss Edes' tea yesterday was a brilliant event and reproduced, with the addition of a most welcome feminine visiting contingent, the hospitable scenes which were transpiring in the neighboring cabinet homes. The hostess had receiving with her Mrs. Charles Bromwell, Mrs. Walter Scott Andrews, Miss McKenna, Miss Ashton, Miss Loring and Miss Childs, while Miss Glover presided over the bowl of eggnog and Mrs. Lothrop Bradley and Miss Patten were vis-a-vis at the flower-decked table in the dining room. Resident and official families and diplomats charmingly represented the fashionable world of the capital, exchanging good wishes with this popular hostess. Mrs. Shippen, who has been mak-
